PUBLIC NOTICE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DATE: DECEMBER 1, 2017

NOTICE REGARDING ELECTRONIC FILING OF PROBATE PROPOSED ORDERS AFTER HEARING EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 2018

Santa Ana, CA – Effective January 1, 2018 Probate Proposed Orders After Hearing are to be submitted by e-filing after the ruling on a petition or motion, except for ex-parte where the order should be submitted as a separate document with the application. Once processed, proposed orders after hearing will be returned electronically to the email used for e-filing. Parties should not submit proposed orders before the hearing. Pre-submitted orders will be rejected.

For original documents included as exceptions to e-filing listed on the Court's webpage, including bonds and letters, the original must follow and be delivered to the Probate Clerk's Office.

Additional information regarding the e-filing process or for a list of court approved Electronic Filing Service Providers, please access the Superior Court of California - County of Orange website – <http://www.occourts.org/online-services/efiling/efiling-probate.html>.
