ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO.: 14/03

Transfer of Elder and Dependent Adult Abuse Cases Pending in the Family Law Unit of Lamoreaux Justice Center to the Probate/Mental Health Unit of Central Justice Center

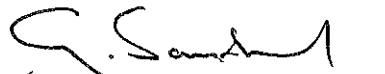

Effective January 13, 2014, Elder and Dependent Adult Abuse cases will no longer be heard in the Family Law unit at the Lamoreaux Justice Center unless they are filed in connection with an underlying Dissolution case.

Hearings Currently Scheduled: All Elder and Dependent Adult Abuse cases at the Lamoreaux Justice Center scheduled for hearing on or after January 13, 2014 will be transferred to the Probate/Mental Health unit at the Central Justice Center and rescheduled in Department C-8. However, if the elder abuse filings are within an underlying Dissolution case, the case will remain in the Family Law unit at Lamoreaux Justice Center. Written notice of this change will be served in each individual case scheduled.

Filing Documents: Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 10.603, effective January 13, 2014, elder abuse documents should be filed in the Probate/Mental Health Clerk's Office, Room D110, at the Central Justice Center. The documents can also be filed electronically.

IT IS SO ORDERED

Dated this 9th day of January, 2014
